

Course Title: Finance for the non financial manager

Course content:

- Overview of how CLIENT is financed
- Understanding basic financial terminology
- CLIENT standing orders and financial regulations – what they mean to you
- Budget setting and budget management
- Using financial data for decision making
- How to deliver best value and value for money

Key learning outcomes:

- Understand how CLIENT is financed and the implications of this
- Be able to use financial terms confidently
- Understand how to comply with CLIENT financial regulations
- Be able to use basic budget management skills
- Identify and control costs
- Understand how to read and interpret financial data to aid decision making
- Apply the concept of best value and value for money to working practice